KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Investment in UITF exposes the investors to various types of risks including but not limited to:

- Interest Rate Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
- Market/Price Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in market prices of securities (e.g., bonds and equities). It is the exposure to the uncertain market value of a portfolio due to price fluctuations.
- Liquidity Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss.
- Credit Risk/Default Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of security which the borrower issued.
- Reinvestment Risk : This is the risk associated with the possibility of having lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of funds are reinvested.
- Other Risk : Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party.

PSBank Money Market Fund uses a defined Risk Management policy in identifying and measuring level of risks. The Fund uses weighted modified duration in evaluating market risk for investment in fixed income securities. Modified Duration measures the approximate sensitivity of the value of the security to changes in interest rates. Interest rates have an adverse relationship with fixed income security prices so that an increase in interest rates generally leads to decrease in fixed income prices and vice versa. The higher the duration of an instrument, the higher its risk (considering all other factors are equal).

- THE UITF FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT ACCOUNT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC)
- THAT DUE TO THE NATURE OF THE INVESTMENT OF A UITF, THE RETURNS/YIELDS CANNOT BE GUARANTEED, HISTORICAL PERFORMANCE WHEN PRESENTED IS PURELY FOR REFERENCE PURPOSES AND IS NOT A GUARANTEE OF SIMILAR FUTURE PERFORMANCE

AS SUCH, THE UNITS OF PARTICIPATION OF THE CLIENT IN THE UITF WHEN REDEEMED, MAY BE WORTH MORE OR WORTH LESS THAN HIS/HER INITIAL INVESTMENT CONTRIBUTION.
- THE TRUSTEE IS NOT LIABLE FOR LOSSES UNLESS UPON WILLFUL DEFAULT, BAD FAITH OR GROSS NEGLIGENCE
- THAT THE INVESTOR MUST READ THE COMPLETE DETAILS OF THE FUND IN THE UITF'S PLAN, MAKE HIS/HER OWN RISK ASSESSMENT, AND WHEN NECESSARY, SEEK AN INDEPENDENT/ PROFESSIONAL OPINION BEFORE MAKING AN INVESTMENT

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Month-on-month, yields on government securities declined by 15 bps on average with the 91-day T-bills closing at 5.24% down by 17 bps for the same period following the cancellation of remaining P10B T-bills and P20B T-bonds auction in December. The government plans to borrow Php585 billion worth of T-bills and T-bonds for the 1st quarter of 2024, Php180Bn higher than the previous quarter's GS auction. Meanwhile, the Fund's 30-day and year-on-year absolute performance was at 0.381% and 4.513%, higher by 3.2 bps and 16.5 bps respectively vs. benchmark performance of 0.349% and 4.348%, while duration stood at 0.07-year as maturities were re-invested in short term fixed income instruments. Headline inflation in December declined to 3.9% from 4.1% in November (lower than consensus forecast of 4.0%). This is within the BSP's target range for inflation of 2.0-4.0%. This brings the average headline inflation for full year 2023 to 6.0%. Core inflation also declined to 4.4% from 4.7% in November. The lower headline inflation figure was mainly due to a slower growth in prices of certain food products and non-alcoholic beverages and lower prices of fuel products despite higher transport costs during the month.

The U.S. Federal Reserve kept interest rates steady during its last meeting this December amid declining U.S. inflation. The Fed signalled a dovish tone stating that it is likely done increasing rates. However, Fed Chair Powell said that talks of rate cuts are premature and that Fed officials are debating whether monetary policy is restrictive enough to bring inflation down to the target of 2%. Meanwhile, locally, the Monetary Board kept key rates steady during the MB meeting last December. BSP Gov. Remolona stated, "The Monetary Board continues to see the need to keep monetary policy settings sufficiently tight to allow inflation expectations to settle more firmly within the target range." Furthermore, Gov. Remolona added that Philippine inflation is still not out of the woods and that potential upside risks to inflation remain from higher utilities and transport prices, petitions for minimum wage adjustments, a potential strong El Nino effect on food supply, and higher oil prices due to geopolitical conflicts in the Middle East. Despite the lower December inflation, the balance of risks to the inflation outlook remain tilted to the upside for 2024 and these uncertainties may contribute to increased market volatility. Looking ahead, any resumption in monetary tightening may cause domestic interest rates to rise which, in turn, may lead to lower mark-to-market values in the short-term. As such, the Fund will continue to be invested in high yielding short-term fixed income securities to provide greater accruals to the Fund and lessen the impact of market volatility. We will continue to monitor foreign and local economic developments for any market opportunities.
