INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

To achieve liquidity and generate income for its participants by investing in a diversified portfolio of short-term Philippine peso denominated fixed income instruments with a portfolio duration of not more than one (1) year with no investment having a term exceeding three (3) years. The Fund aims to outperform its benchmark, the Philippine 91-day Treasury Bills (net of taxes).

BENCHMARK

The benchmark used for the PSBank Money Market Fund is the Philippine 91-day Treasury bills BVAL rate. The Bankers Association of the Philippines (BAP) is the benchmark administrator and owner of the PHP BVAL Reference Rates to be used as the Philippine Peso Government Securities benchmark in the GS market. The PHP BVAL Reference Rates are solely calculated by Bloomberg Finance Singapore L.P. and/or its affiliates (Bloomberg), under an agreement with the BAP. The BAP has engaged the Philippine Dealing System (PDS) to be its Benchmark Publication Agent and the BVAL rates for Government Securities are published on the PDS website daily at 5:00 p.m.

The 91-day T-bills (net of taxes) is the best suitable benchmark for the Money Market Fund since it is aligned with the general characteristic of the Fund which is a short term investment facility.

Additional information on the BVAL rates can be found on the PDS website (www.pds.com.ph)

CLIENT SUITABILITY

A client profiling process should be performed prior to participating in the Fund to guide the prospective investor if the Fund is suited to his/her investment objectives and risk tolerance. Clients are advised to read the Declaration of Trust Fund Rules of the Fund, which may be obtained from the Trustee, before deciding to invest.

Suitable for individual and corporate investors with moderately conservative risk appetite.

KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Investment in UITF exposes the investors to various types of risks including but not limited to:

- Interest Rate Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
- Market/Price Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in market prices of securities (e.g., bonds and equities). It is the exposure to the uncertain market value of a portfolio due to price fluctuations.
- Liquidity Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss.
- Credit Risk/Default Risk : This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of security which the borrower issued.
- Reinvestment Risk : This is the risk associated with the possibility of having lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of funds are reinvested.
- Other Risk : Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party.

PSBank Money Market Fund uses a defined Risk Management policy in identifying and measuring level of risks. The Fund uses weighted modified duration in evaluating market risk for investment in fixed income securities. Modified Duration measures the approximate sensitivity of the value of the security to changes in interest rates. Interest rates have an adverse relationship with fixed income security prices so that an increase in interest rates generally leads to decrease in fixed income prices and vice versa. The higher the duration of an instrument, the higher its risk (considering all other factors are equal).

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Yields on government securities declined by 9 bps on average month-on-month with the 3-month paper closing at 4.8820% down by 1.3 bps from last month. Meanwhile, the 5-yr and 7-yr papers were down by 14 bps and 11 bps while the 10-yr papers were flat after the lower-than-expected 3rd quarter GDP growth may likely lead the BSP to cut rates again by 25 bps in December. The Fund’s 30-day and year-to-date absolute performance were 0.284% and 3.606% vs. benchmark of 0.326% and 3.892% respectively, while the Fund’s duration stood at 0.0512 years.

Headline inflation in November registered at 1.5%, down from 1.7% in October. This is lower than the consensus forecast of 1.7% and lower than the BSP's target range for inflation of 2.0-4.0%. This brings the average headline inflation from Jan-Nov 2025 to 1.6%. Meanwhile, core inflation in November was slightly lower at 2.4% from 2.5% in October. The lower inflation was due to the slower growth in prices of the food and non-alcoholic beverages sector and in prices of the furnishings, household equipment and routine household maintenance sector.

In the US, there remains uncertainty on whether the Fed will cut rates or not during its last policy meeting of the year. Some Fed officials are in favor of cutting rates amid downside risks to employement and the labor market. Howerver, other Fed officials favor keeping rates steady with inflation remaining elevated and the full impact of tariffs still to be felt.

The Monetary Board may cut interest rates by 25 bps for a fifth straight meeting during its December policy meeting after the disappointing 3rd quarter GDP growth figure and amid a benign inflation outlook. BSP Gov. Remolona cited the need to support the economy amid below-target GDP due to reductions in government spending and dampened business and consumer sentiment resulting from the corruption scandal. Meanwhile, upside risks to inflation remain from higher utility rates and transport fares, potential higher rice prices, higher oil prices due to geopolitical conflicts in the Middle East, and the global spillover effects of new tariff policies initiated by US Pres. Trump. Looking ahead, continued monetary easing may cause domestic interest rates to decline which, in turn, may lead to higher mark-to-market values in the short-term.

As such, the Fund will continue to seek high yielding short-term fixed income securities to maximize returns, lessen the impact of market volatility and provide greater accruals to the Fund. We will also continue to monitor foreign and local economic developments to assess any impact these may have on the Fund.
